From the Editor

For many of us, Christmas is a time of excitement we look forward to. As we share this time with family and friends, let's remember the reason we celebrate – the birth of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Saviour, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life. - Titus 3:4-7 (NIVUK)

We recently witnessed a number of baptisms and were blessed by the testimonies given in the service by those being baptised. It was a great privilege to be reminded of the grace of God and the hope we have in Him, and to see the enactment of dying to the old life and rising to a new life in Jesus.

New Year is also a time of reflection on the year's passing and the possibility of new beginnings. I pray that we will look forward to 2022 knowing that we have been justified by God's grace and have the hope of eternal life.

May you all have a very joyful Christmas and blessed New Year!

A BIRTHDAY POEM

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life" Psa 23.6

Life is like a journey
For me, and for everyone
The years have flown quickly past
Memories, stored up by the ton!

A lifetime of varied thoughts
Fill my human mind - Psa 37.25
Events and people I have known
And places too, I find

Blessed by God for 90 years

To reach the age of ninety
Words cannot describe
My gratitude to God in heaven
Who's always by my side - Isa 41.10

The Lord has led and fed me
All the days of my life - Psa 68.19
Blessed me with friends and family
And ALICE - my lovely wife

A birthday is a milestone
To reflect and view the past
Value our daily blessings - Psa 103
And things we know will last

The future is as bright
As God's promises that shine
Which I stand on firmly
And make each one mine - 2 Cor 1.20

Pastor's page

We started 2021 with the church text for the year from Isaiah 55:12-13

"You shall go out with Joy and be led forth in peace"

We focused on the three words, Joy,
Peace and Celebration, encouraging us all to be gospel people who know delight in God and live as people who know life and know it in God's fullness.

Of course we have had a lot to moan about in 2021 and some of us have become experts. One idea I had was that we could have an RBC Victor Mel-drew competition, but some would just not believe it and the competition may be too great.

As in each year, as we look back there have also been some sad times. As a community we have wept with those who wept and struggled with those who struggled. This is a church that really cares and so at times, really hurts.

Back to the start of the year and our three key words: Joy, Peace and Celebration. Let us, as we turn to the Advent season and towards the end of 2021, challenge ourselves with these three questions.

- Where have I experienced Joy in 2021?
- Where have I found Peace in 2021?
- Where have I Celebrated in 2021?

For me, Joy has been so easy this year as we, as a church, have stepped carefully into "in person" services, live worship and being together again. Seeing the people we have missed and starting to venture towards handshakes, and even the occasional hug. Joy for Vikki and me was also our trip to Austria and seeing our son and his family.
Spending time with our daughter in law and our beautiful grandchildren.
Joy was being taught the German words for ice-cream flavours by a 4 year old! Joy was also found in laughter with other members of our family and the beginning to eat with friends and be able to do something like normal again.

Peace for me was found in the beauty

February 2022/March 2022 edition of the Grapevine is of music and the calm of a walk along a beach. It was found in communion and coffee, in being with people and also walking alone. Peace was found in the hand of a surgeon and the love of our NHS.

And celebration, celebrating life, celebrating new life of baptism. Celebrating a church that is seeing new people and a congregation that is growing. I celebrated our new deacons and all who took a step to serve God in new ways, I celebrate hope for the year to come, with all its opportunities (and another grandchild on the way!)

I could write a long list of woes and complaints. Truth be known, I have far more to thank God for and be excited about. My prayer for myself is that as I enter 2022, it will not be leaving Joy, Peace and Celebration behind, but recognising as a child of God, this is a life-long calling and way to be.

Will you join me in listing your Joys, Peaceful places and Celebration, in the words of the old hymn:

*1 When upon life's billows you are tempest tossed,
When you are discouraged, thinking all is lost,
Count your many blessings, name them
one by one,
And it will surprise you what the Lord hath done.*

Refrain:

Count your blessings, name them one by one;

Count your blessings, see what God hath done;

Count your blessings, name them one by one;

Count your many blessings, see what God hath done.

2 Are you ever burdened with a load of care?

Does the cross seem heavy you are called to bear?

Count your many blessings, ev'ry doubt will fly,

And you will be singing as the days go by.

[Refrain]

3 When you look at others with their lands and gold,

Think that Christ has promised you His wealth untold;

Count your many blessings, money cannot buy

Your reward in heaven, nor your home on high. [Refrain]

4 So, amid the conflict, whether great or small,

*Do not be discouraged, God is over all;
Count your many blessings, angels will attend,*

Help and comfort give you to your journey's end. [Refrain]

Bible Bife

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew 2: 1-10

Around the time of Jesus' birth, in a land far to the east of Israel, there were men who studied the stars...

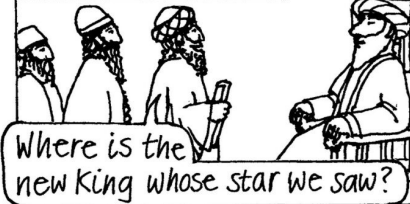

When they saw a new star they believed it showed a special King had been born.

They set off to see that King.

They reached Jerusalem, the home of King Herod.

Where is the new King whose star we saw?

The Romans had made Herod King of the Jews about 30 years earlier. He was ruthless.

The Jews hated him and he was always worried that people were plotting against him.

He had them killed even if they were his wife or children...

So what the wise men said about a new King upset Herod and that made everyone else afraid.

Herod got the teachers and priests together and asked about the King's birthplace.

That would be Little Bethlehem*

*Micah 5:2

Herod secretly met the wise men and asked when they had first seen the star.

Go to Bethlehem and look for the child. When you find him let me know so I can come and worship him.

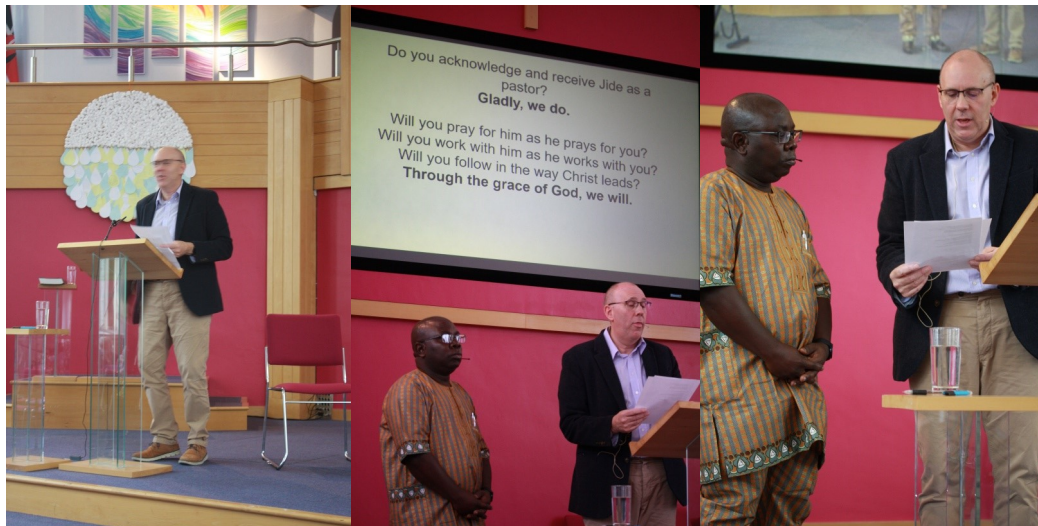

As they left Jerusalem the wise men were elated to see the guiding star again.

Inspirations Card Making

I am currently trying to sort out what we have to do to start our group again, but as I said before, I desperately need help if we are going to continue long term.

Please seriously consider if you can help in this way and contact me.

I pray that everyone will continue to keep safe.

God Bless you all.

Romford Baptist Community Money Advice

As I'm sure many of you know, Romford Baptist Church now runs a debt advice centre in partnership with Community Money Advice. Ten volunteers from RBC and myself have trained to be qualified debt advisers. At the centre we offer free, impartial, face-to-face debt advice. The service that we provide is completely confidential. I, as the centre manager, am the only person that knows who all of our clients are.

If you are in debt then please let us help you. If you know others that are in debt and need our help, then please recommend us to them. You could even offer to come along with them to their first appointment to give them that extra bit of support.

For more information and to book an appointment please call 07378 191183

Congratulations Correction

Rev. J. Loveard presents a celebratory certificate to Mrs P. Read.

In the last edition of Grapevine, we incorrectly congratulated Brian and Pauline Read on their 50th anniversary, when it was, in fact their 60th.

We apologise for this error. The greeting should have read:

"Congratulations to Brian and Pauline Read who celebrated 60 years of Christian marriage on 16th September 2021."

Planning

Do you ever have so much planned for the next day, and then you wake up and just say, "Nah."

Pray for those in Education

End of Term

"Through Jesus... let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise - the fruit of lips that confess his name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased." Hebrews 13:15-16

- For schools, that they will enjoy the build up to Christmas.
- For schools to be excited about the birth of Jesus.
- For school staff that they will not be overwhelmed by the extras the season brings.
- For people planning Nativity plays, that they will reflect the truth about the birth of Jesus.
- For children not to simply be swept along with the commercial nature of Christmas.
- For children worried about being at home in the holidays.

Christmas

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given... and he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Isaiah 9:6

- For those who face loneliness this Christmas.
- For those still being affected by Covid.
- For those who attend church services at Christmas but not at other times.
- For young people to glorify and praise God, as did the shepherds that first Christmas.
- That we will seize the opportunities the season brings to speak of our Saviour.

Remembrance Sunday Acrostic poem

Over 100 words were supplied by the residents at Parkside during an activity to the letters of Remembrance Sunday and then a poem was formed from them by Pat West on their behalf using many of their words:

Reminisce about the past
Every day could be their last
Moments that would always stay
Evening shadows end this day
Memories, both good and bad
Beautiful thoughts of that young lad
Resolute to do his best
Anxious pangs about the test
Nothing though could prepare for
Carnage that was waiting there
Emotions bursting in his heart, still prepared to do his part

Silent now the sounds of war
Understanding there'll be no more
Night or silence comes along
Dawn brings back sweet bird song
Allies meet, greet, celebrate
Youthful heroes, home does await.

From Texas to Montana

A cowboy who has just moved from Texas to Montana walks into a bar and orders three mugs of Bud. He sits at the back of the room, drinking a sip out of each one in turn. When he finishes them, he comes back to the bar and orders three more. The bartender walks up and says to the cowboy, "You know, a mug goes flat after I draw it. It would taste better if you bought them one at a time." The cowboy replies, "You see, I have two brothers. One is in Arizona and the other is in Colorado. When we all left our home in Texas, we promised that we'd drink this way to remember the days when we drank together. So I'm drinking one beer for each of my brothers and one for myself."

The bartender admits that this is a nice custom, and leaves it there. The cowboy becomes a regular in the bar, and always drinks the same way. He orders three mugs and drinks them in turn. One day, he comes in and orders only two mugs. All the regulars take notice and fall silent. When he comes back to the bar for the second round, the bartender says, "I don't want to intrude on your grief, but I wanted to offer my condolences on your loss." The cowboy looks quite confused for a moment, then a light dawns in his eyes and he laughs. "Oh, no, everybody's just fine," he explains. "It's just that my wife and I joined the Baptist Church and I had to quit drinking." "It hasn't affected my brothers though."

Camels

In Jane's Christmas drawing, two of the camels were approaching the inn, over which was pictured a large star. The third camel and its rider were going directly away from it. "Why is the third man going in a different direction?" her mother asked. Jane replied: "Oh, he's looking for a place to park."

Snowmen

Two snowmen were standing next to each other. One said to the other: "Can you smell carrots?"

Christmas Carols

One night Freda went carol singing. She knocked on the door of a house and began to sing. A man with a violin in his hand came to the door. Within half a minute, tears were streaming down his face. Touched, Freda sang every carol she knew - and some she didn't. The man continued to weep gently throughout her performance. "I understand," she said softly at last. "You are remembering your happy childhood Christmas days."

"No, not exactly," he replied in a choked sort of voice. "I'm a musician!"

Silence?

Christmas is the season when your neighbour's radio keeps you awake playing 'Silent Night'.
