From the Editor

Already we are starting to see Christmas lights and decorations going up. Christmas is a time of wonder and celebration. While we enjoy all those lights, may we be reminded that Jesus is the Light of the World.

⁴ In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind.

⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
1 John 1:4-5 NIV

During this time of Advent, leading up to Christmas, let's remember the reason we celebrate – Jesus was born to bring us salvation.

She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins. Matthew 1:21 NIV

So, when reading through this edition of Grapevine, may we be inspired as we celebrate the faith of our RBC community. We rejoice as we read of personal faith lived out in daily life, of activities bringing fun and fellowship to so many, and endeavours to share the love of Jesus with others in our wider community.

Christmas Blessings to all!

"Then the King will say, 'I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me.'

Matthew 25:40 (The Message)

People who know me well know that I try and spend my spare time at the theatre. Recently I watched a new show called "The Little Big Things" which is a musical based on the true story of Henry Fraser, who in 2009 at the age of 17 was in an accident that left him paralyzed from the shoulders down. He is now a successful mouth artist, and part of the aim of the musical is to look at the "little big things" in every day life.

How does that link to the above verse? It got me thinking, we have the opportunity to create and receive "little big things" in our everyday lives.

It can be saying hello and asking someone how their week has gone – you could be the first person to ask them that week, saying thank you to the bus driver as you get off the bus, sending a text/email/card to someone letting them know you're thinking of them.

Can you remember a time when your phone buzzed and it was a message from someone saying "just to let you know I am praying for you" or your phone rings and it's a friend calling for a chat, or it can even be someone holding the door open for you in the shop – all "little" things that can make a "big" difference to your everyday life.

As we lead up to Christmas we tend to try and do the above, send Christmas greetings, arrange to meet up with friends – but then come the New Year we get back into our everyday lives again. Wouldn't it be great if we could try and implement into our everyday lives "The Little Big Things".

Eulogy for Doris Norman - 21/09/2023

Doris was born in April 1939, just a few months before the outbreak of WW2. The family lived in the East End of London at the time and it wasn't long before the family were evacuated away for their safety. The first part of the war Doris was evacuated with her Mum, older sister Iris and brothers Arthur and Alf. Although unsettling, the family were together, apart from their father, who remained in London as he had a reserved occupation. However later in the war Doris Iris and Alf were evacuated to another place without their mother or older brother. Some of this time was ok but one particular home where they were housed was not a happy one and this experience was to forge a strong bond between them which lasted the rest of their lives together.

Doris was always a very central part of our family. She spent all of her Christmases with us and I have many happy memories of time spent with her. One memory that comes to mind is when we would play a game called beat the black ball. Doris would get so excited and scream when her ball was almost caught by the black ball.

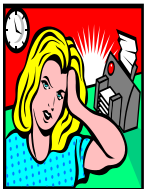

Doris was a very positive and happy person; I rarely saw her down apart from when her very close friend Liam died 9 years ago. She always had a smile and was quite laid back and didn't let anything faze her.

Doris was a passionate animal lover and supported many animal charities, especially those supporting animal welfare and rescue centres. She herself adopted many cats from rescue centres and in recent years these were older cats that no-one else wanted. The last of which, Mitzie, is now finishing her final years living with my Mum. Doris trained in shorthand and copy typing and we recently found her school certificate which showed she got 98% in her exams. No surprise then that Doris worked her whole life until retirement as a copy typist in central London.

In her twenties and thirties Doris was a keen Tennis player and this probably explained her love of the Wimbledon tournament. Each June everything went on hold as she avidly watched the matches.

Doris also loved cooking and we had many a chat about new recipes I had tried and she would copy the recipe to try herself. She loved food from different cultures and would jump at the chance of trying something new. A couple of months ago Doris and I went on a day trip by coach to Wroxham in the Norfolk broads. I suggested either fish and chips or Thai food for lunch. You can probably guess which she chose and she thoroughly enjoyed her meal in the Thai restaurant.

Doris was also a passionate Pescatarian choosing vegetarian or Fish over meat as she disagreed with modern farming methods. Doris loved a curry and if we went out for a meal and there was a veggie curry on the menu then she would choose it.

Doris also gave blood regularly up until retirement and clocked up 40 years of donating!

Not many people knew that in her younger years Doris also played the accordion and I understand she did a lot of crochet when I was young and I received several beautiful dresses she had crocheted for me.

In recent years, particularly since my husband Neil retired, we have enjoyed many great holidays together with Doris and Mum, a couple of times a year. This year in May we went to Suffolk and visited some of their favourite places like Southwold, Felixstowe, Aldeburgh, Dedham and Flatford Mill. We had fabulous weather and this will be one of the good memories we can hold of Doris. We also spent valuable time with family members, Joanne and David who live near Colchester, and also on a day trip, spent time with Mike and Sue in Broadstairs. Doris loved the sea and would always jump at the chance of spending time at any seaside resort. She loved visiting my friends' beach hut at Walton, where we celebrated several birthdays.

I have talked a lot about the things Doris loved and what was important to her but far and above all of the previous things I mentioned was Doris' faith in Christ.

She first heard about Jesus at a London City Mission children's week in Stratford. There she made a commitment to God and when the mission closed down she moved to a church in Canning Town which she attended with friends. A change of home prompted a move to Highway church in East Ham, where she was later baptised. Another change of home brought her to this church and she became a member in 2003. When searching for papers required by the solicitor, we came across a piece of paper with the following verse written out on it by Doris.

Psalm 61v1

"When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

Underneath she had written the following; When we know Jesus as our saviour, repented of our sins and asked him into our lives, then this life is not the end but just the beginning of a new life with HIM. None of us know what this life holds for us, but what we can know is that Jesus makes all the difference.

Today we say a final farewell to our Dorie but if we know Christ, we know that we will meet her again in heaven one day. I thank God for her life and for all that she has meant to all the family over the years.

Which side of the turkey has the most feathers?

The outside.

Sums up Christmas

Three phrases that sum up Christmas are: 'Peace on Earth'; 'Goodwill to Men'; and 'Batteries not included'.

Red

What's red and white, red and white, and red and white?

Father Christmas rolling down a hill.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Luke 1:26-56 & Matthew 1:18-25

In Israel, about 2000 years ago, a young woman, Mary, was going to marry Joseph. The weddings were in two stages.

In one year we will complete our wedding

Then God's messenger angel came to see Mary.

You will have God's baby, and call him Jesus, 'god saves', because he will save people from what they do wrong.

How can this happen?

Your cousin Elizabeth, who couldn't have children, is now 6 months pregnant.

Mary visited Elizabeth.

With God, nothing is impossible.

When Joseph heard that Mary was pregnant, he was very upset

This will bring shame on me and my family.

He always did what was right so he decided to end their marriage, but quietly.

CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE

But the angel came to him in a dream.

Don't be afraid to marry Mary. The baby is God's, and you will call him Jesus.

So Joseph and Mary completed their marriage.

Stronger

Statistics prove we're all getting stronger. Fifty years ago, you needed an estate car to hold £50 worth of Christmas presents. Twenty-five years ago, it took two people to carry £30 worth of Christmas groceries - now a five-year-old can do it.

Children's version of the Christmas story

- When the three wise guys from the east side arrived, they found Jesus in the manger.
- When Mary heard that she was the mother of Jesus, she sang the Magna Carta
- Jesus was born because Mary had an immaculate contraption.

Santa

What do you call Santa's helpers? - Subordinate Clauses.

Snowman

What do you get when you cross a snowman with a vampire? - Frostbite.

Wise

A little boy rushed home from school and said excitedly: "I got a part in the Christmas play!"
"What part?" asked his mother.

"I'm one of the three wise guys!"

The Christmas stars

Any astronomer can predict with absolute accuracy just where every star in the universe will be as the clocks chime midnight on Christmas Eve. He can make no such prediction about his teenage daughter.

Runs over

A father gave his daughter a young puppy for Christmas. An hour later, he found her in the kitchen, looking sadly at a puddle in the centre of the floor. "Look Dad," she said, "My pup runneth over!"

What would you like for Christmas?

A little girl went to visit Father Christmas in the local garden centre grotto. He welcomed her with a smile and the question of what she would like for Christmas.

The little girl gasped and stared up at him in horror. "Didn't you get my email?!"

What do you get Dad?

December is the month when the family begins to discuss what to get Dad for Christmas. Some argue for a shirt; others hold out for a pair of socks. But the argument usually ends in a tie.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Genesis chapters 41:46 - 45:28

Joseph: sold by his brothers, taken to Egypt, now in charge of the stored food as famine spreads through Egypt, and beyond...

Joseph's father sent 10 of Joseph's brothers to Egypt to buy food.

To prove you are not spies, you must bring your other brother to me...

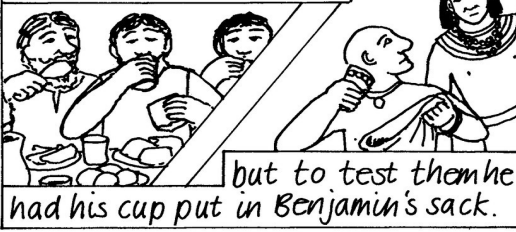

Joseph saw they did not recognise him. He wanted to see his little brother Benjamin.

They needed more food so they had to take Benjamin to Egypt.

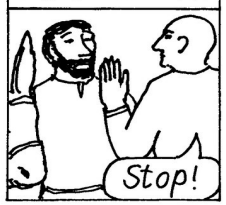

Joseph gave them food...

but to test them he had his cup put in Benjamin's sack.

Then as they went home...

You have stolen my master's special cup.

It was in Benjamin's sack.

The servant took them back to Joseph.

You are a thief and must stay as a slave.

But Judah said

It would break our father's heart. Let me take his place.

Joseph saw that his brothers had changed.

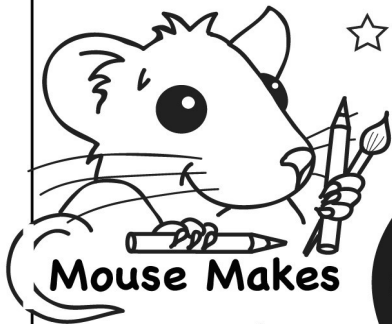

I am your brother Joseph. You sold me but God sent me to Egypt.

I can look after you. Come and live with me.

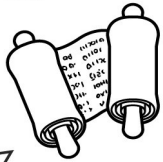

So all of Joseph's family moved to Egypt.
