Other ways to serve

If you would be interested in being part of a group to complete these projects, please let Steve Street know.

Dates/Information to Note

Wellbeing Course - 13th October - 8th December

The course has kicked off, but it is not too late to join. It is an excellent course focusing on different aspects of wellbeing. The course goes alongside a book called "God's Plan for your Wellbeing" by Dave Smith. This is available from several online sites from £8.99 – £12.99.

Remembrance Sunday - 10th November

To enable people from the church to join with the act of remembrance with the town, we will be starting our service at 10am. The service will be slightly shorter than usual.

After a pause, we will also hold an act of remembrance at the church for those who cannot stand across the road. Children and young people will go straight to their groups as the service begins.

Evening of Prayer - 16th November

In the top right corner, the Romford Baptist Church logo is displayed, consisting of a stylized cross with green, blue, and red segments, next to the text "Romford BAPTIST CHURCH". On the left side, a white speech bubble contains the event details: "27th October 3-4.30pm The Story of Noah". In the center-right, there is a black square with the word "Causeway" in white, with "AMAZE" written in smaller letters below it, all enclosed within a circular graphic of glowing lines. Christmas Tree Festival

Would you like to be part of the Christmas Tree Festival this year?

If, so please book your slot with Vikki by Sunday 17th November 2024.

We are inviting groups to buy and decorate an artificial 4ft tree to a Christmas carol theme. When you book your slot, you will be issued with your Christmas carol. Your decorations should reflect your group and ideally be handmade or hand decorated to your given theme. Everything must be on the tree (not under it or free standing) and please note, no lights will be possible.

You may be able to get some ideas by attending the Christmas tree festival at Romford United Reformed Church on Saturday 30th November to which everyone is invited.

We are thankful to have received a donation of money towards this project so if you are unable to buy your own, kindly contact Vikki. Donations are still welcome.
